

STEVE DAHM

HEAD MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TENNIS COACH,
USC – Aiken,

803-646-5737 stevend@usca.edu

Steve offers private lessons for all levels.

Steve Dahm finished his seventh season at the helm of the USC Aiken tennis programs in 2008. His men's teams have combined for a 84-67 overall record.

Dahm has led both teams to the NCAA Tournament, including a 17-7 men's squad in 2007. The Kenmore, N.Y., native came to USC Aiken from Division I Furman University where he served as the assistant men's coach for two seasons. A certified PTR professional, Dahm has a strong foundation of coaching experience. He has spent time at the Van der Meer Tennis Center, the University of Rochester and the Country Club of Buffalo, where he has been the head tennis professional for ten years.

In collegiate play, Dahm was the number one singles and doubles player at the University of Buffalo. He was selected to the Mid-American All-Conference team as well as the First-Team All-Star squad. While attending UB, he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology.